THE HERITAGE PROFESSION AT WORK IN ATLANTIC CANADA

The Atlantic Canada Association of Heritage Professionals (ACAHP) is excited to host an upcoming event aimed at fostering discussions and collaborations among heritage professionals in Atlantic Canada.

Building on the success of our previous symposium in Charlottetown, PEI, in 2023, this event in Fredericton aims to encourage open discussion and address current challenges and opportunities in heritage conservation in the Atlantic region.

ACAHP is a regional chapter of the Canadian Association of Heritage Professionals (CAHP) and represents a diverse group of professionals with a wide range of specialized expertise in cultural heritage conservation in Newfoundland and Labrador, and in the three Maritime provinces of New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and Nova Scotia.
